Gap and Needs

Description of the Professional Practice Gap

i What is the professional practice gap? (eg. Change in practice, problem in practice, opportunity for improvement).

Describe the current state: *

Staff in the clinic settings are inconsistent in providing newly diagnosed patients with hypertension (HTN) teaching and coaching on use of an electronic blood pressure (BP) monitoring device and the benefits of regular self-monitoring.

Describe the desired state: *

Newly diagnosed patients with HTN receive patient education based on evidenced based practice guidelines including medication education; lifestyle education; and instruction on use of an electronic BP monitoring device and education about the benefits of regular self-monitoring.

Identified gap: *

Staff are distributing the HTN electronic BP monitoring device without patient education about the use of the device and the benefits of regular self-monitoring.
