

Brief Bio:Mojgan Haririfar, PhD, RN, FNP-BC, NPD-BC, CCTC, Caritas Coach®

During her 30 years career, Mojgan has held various positions in clinical, academic, and biomedical industry as a nurse, a nurse practitioner, manager for kidney and pancreas transplant program, and adjunct faculty for the Nursing program at university level. She has presented at national and international conferences for, Sigma, American Transplant Congress, and Association of California Nurse Leaders. At her current position as a Nursing Professional Development Specialist with the Center for Education and Professional Development, Mojgan oversees the Leadership and Management Academy, nursing and Advanced Practice Provider (APP) student placement, is a facilitator of the Schwartz Center Rounds, faculty of the APP Preceptorship Workshop. She has served a faculty with the Stanford APP Fellowship program, guest lecturer for the PA program at Stanford.